

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Fee the Evolutionist unites with #1 Billboard charting artist for the celebration of Hip Hop's 50th Anniversary

Nashua, NH - May 12th, 2023 - Fee the Evolutionist will release his new song "Without Me" on all major digital music platforms along with an accompanying video. "Without Me" is a collaboration between Fee and #1 Billboard charting artist Edo G. The duo rap about still having love for the music and bridging generational gaps on the 50th Anniversary of Hip Hop. The song has a classic boom bap feel that pays tribute to the culture while calling out anyone who is disrespectful of it. DJ Myth scratches up a hook that perfectly supports the sentiments that the lyricists convey.

Fee delivers a unique flow reminiscent of golden-era emcees. He's collaborated with platinum producer & mentor Ski Beatz (producer for Jay-Z) and has had songs placed in movies and tv such as HBO, Amazon Prime and the NBA. Fee is also a recent winner of the 2022 New England Music Awards in the "Rising Star" category.

"Fee the Evolutionist represents something rare in the local scene - continuity. This new project harks back to the golden age of hip hop weaving the familiar sounds of soul and R&B into a contemporary soundscape". ~ NH Magazine
